

Contact:
Cynthia L. A Schick
(908) 236-2989
Cynthia@clscommunications.net

Career Exploration Exposition Exploring Your Many Career Options - Seeking Sponsors and Vendors

Flemington, NJ – Two Hunterdon County business groups are coming together to host an Career Exposition targeting the many people who find themselves in career transition. The host for the “Career Exploration Exposition” is the Business Woman’s Charitable Foundation (BWCF) and the main sponsor is the Hunterdon Chapter of New Jersey Association of Women Business Owners (NJAWBO).

The event is scheduled for Saturday, October 10th from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and will be held at Roman Jewelers building in Flemington. Organizers are seeking professionals interested in participating as Experts for the exposition area, business coaches for one-on-one sessions with attendees, speakers on various business topics and/or sponsors to support the event and gain visibility of their services and brand.

Attendees will have access to business & personal coaching professionals in 15-minute sessions; various motivational and business seminars; and an exposition of business professional experts available to consult on ‘what it takes to work in a particular business or profession.’ Exposition experts will include professionals from various industries including multi-level marketing companies such as Mary Kay, Shaklee and Silpada, Real Estate, Marketing and Public Relations, Graphics and Web Design, E-Bay Experts, Franchising, Financial Planning, etc...

For more information on how support the event or participate, please call Ulka Rodgers at (908) 343-9996.